

The Most Unforgettable Experience in My Life

周梅菁

The most unforgettable experience stays fresh in my memory all the time. I will remember the experience of being lost at night all my life.

It was a dark and a little bit cold night. One of my friends suggested that we go outside to watch the stars. We started from the cabana we lived in, each with a torch in hand. At first we just wanted to go around and appreciated the beautiful sky decorated by many stars. But later we decide to do go further. All we thought about was walking and talking. We ignored the most important thing -- a big forest was beyond the cabana. It was unfortunate that we went into the forest and got lost.

When we found we were lost, it was too late to find the original way back to the cabana. I grasped my friend's hand firmly. The cold and strong wind blew against my face all the time. It whispers through the trees. What's more, the fog quickly became thick. Terrible fear came to my mind and made me tremble out of my control. I was scared to death. The only idea in my brain was that it was the end of my life. It was impossible for me to get out of the forest. Even though my friends tried to convince me that nothing bad would happen to us and we were safe and sound, I still feared that we would come to a messy end.

It was hard to find the way clear because of the dense fog. It made us lose the sense of direction totally. We didn't know which way to go next. Suddenly, a man with a torch stood in front of us. At first, it frightened us stiff. We dared not open our eyes until he came to pat us on our shoulders and told us that if we were lost, he would help us to find the way back. At that moment, I was relieved because I knew I this terrible experience of getting lost.

It was really an unforgettable experience in my life. I will not forget such a special experience.
