

Unit 6

1. They believe eating meat _____ the wishes of their gods.
(A) goes against (B) go for (C) go against
2. They pursue people _____ fur coats and throw paint on them.
(A) wear (B) worn (C) who wear
3. Others think that if we stop eating meat, we will eliminate many of the problems _____ industrial farms.
(A) are caused by (B) caused by (C) causing by
4. For most vegetarians, nature _____ plants and animals.
(A) dividing into (B) divides into (C) is divided into
5. A grassland farmer knows that grasslands are healthiest when they are _____.
(A) on balance (B) in balance (C) for balance
6. Grasslands need a variety of _____ to capture the sunlight.
(A) grasses (B) grass (C) grassing
7. Each is _____ a healthy system.
(A) requiring for (B) a requirement for (C) a requirement of
8. Vegetarians and industrial farmers _____ a single part of the natural cycle.
(A) focus (B) in focus (C) focus on
9. Many people who follow very different diets all declare _____ vegetarians.
(A) themselves (B) them (C) X
10. Some, _____ vegans, eat no animal products at all.
(A) known by (B) known for (C) known as
11. They avoid _____ plants, eating only fruit, seeds, beans and nuts.
(A) to kill (B) killing (C) being killed
12. Other vegetarians are _____ extreme, eating no products that require killing animals.
(A) more (B) less (C) far
13. Animals raised for food are kept in cruel conditions, _____ they suffer and are ultimately killed.
(A) where (C) when (D) why
14. _____ their religious beliefs, such people as Hindus and Buddhists share this point of view.
(A) In (B) With (C) Because
15. _____, it is wrong to use land to raise animals for their meat.
(A) As such (B) As much (C) As well
16. The amount of land and energy required to produce a kilogram of meat protein is about 10 times _____ to produce the equivalent amount of plant protein.
(A) that needed (B) needed (C) that is needed

17. As a consequence of switching to a non-meat diet, more people could _____ the same amount of land.

(A) be fed with (B) be fed on (C) be fed for

18. In a world where one third of the population _____ in poverty, a non-meat diet is more appropriate.

(A) struggle (B) struggles (C) struggled

19. _____ these moral reasons, the current method of raising animals in massive factory farms threatens the environment.

(A) Apart of (B) Apart to (C) Apart from

20. _____ these farms cause exposure to pollution and disease in rural areas, but they also contribute to climate change in several ways.

(A) Not only (B) Not only do (C) Not do only

21. Cattle themselves _____ a source of methane, which has a much more significant greenhouse warning effect than carbon dioxide.

(A) are (B) is (C) has

22. As they digest food, cattle produce around 18 percent of the methane in the atmosphere _____ human activity.

(A) caused by (B) being caused by (C) which caused by

23. _____ animal protein, with its requirement of oil-based chemicals and fuel, uses more energy.

(A) Raising (B) Raised (C) With raising

24. Our hunger for cheap meat _____ the global warming problem.

(A) adds to (B) is added to (C) adding to

25. _____, vegetarians live much longer than meat eaters.

(A) By average (B) On average (C) In average

26. Eliminating meat _____ our food will enable us to lead a healthier and longer life.

(A) from (B) against (C) away